University of California, Berkeley, Miller Scholars Program

Aug 2023–Aug 2024

Undergraduate Research Fellow | Advisors: Edwin Lin, Ph.D. & Julio Salas, M.A.

Berkeley, CA

“The Weaponization of Latinidad: Exclusion from Latinx Student Associations and the Future of Panethnicity”

- Conducted in-depth interviews and qualitative coding of Latinx student organizations to analyze how different interpretations of Latinidad are utilized to both include and exclude members within campus communities.
- Examined the impact of Latinx student organizations' definitions of Latinidad on panethnic solidarity, identifying how racial, cultural, and national variations shape group dynamics and perceptions of belonging within the broader Latino community on campus.

San Diego City College, Honors Program

Jan 2023–May 2023

Independent Researcher | Advisor: Sarah Pitcher, Ph.D.

San Diego, CA

“The Sociology of Fraternities: The Ebb and Flow of Hyper-Masculine Social Currents”

- Synthesized academic literature on masculinity in collegiate fraternities, integrating the theoretical perspectives of Reeves-Sunday and Katz to examine the construction and reinforcement of gender norms within fraternity cultures.
- Interpreted how fraternity environments shape and perpetuate dominant masculinity ideals, contributing to ongoing discussions on gender, power, and identity.

San Diego Miramar College, Honors Program

Sep 2022–Dec 2022

Independent Researcher | Advisor: Laura Pecenco, Ph.D.

San Diego, CA

“Not So Sweet: Expanded Social Stress in New Diabetics”

- Conducted digital ethnographies of online diabetic support groups to explore how low-income individuals navigate resources and assimilate into a medical lifestyle.
- Analyzed the relationship between income and insulin usage through regression modeling ( $r = -0.82$ ), revealing a significant inverse correlation between income and the number of insulin units prescribed, disadvantaging low-income diabetics with rising medication costs.
  - $[30.907203 - 0.00022383453(\text{Income}) = \text{Predicted Units Usage}]$

San Diego City College, Honors Program

Sep 2022–Dec 2022

Independent Researcher | Advisor: Sarah Pitcher, Ph.D.

San Diego, CA

“The Siren’s Song: Starbucks Partners Under Capitalism”

- Conducted qualitative interviews with Starbucks partners during a nationwide unionization movement to explore the intersection of technology, labor control, consumerism, and capitalism, utilizing Marxist theory, Arlie Hochschild’s emotional labor theory, and George Ritzer’s McDonaldization framework to analyze the effects of corporate practices on workers' experiences and motivations for unionization.
- Analyzed internal company documents and partner testimonies to investigate the impacts of corporate surveillance, customer expectations, and emotional labor, offering insights into the dehumanizing effects of automation and corporate control in the fast-food industry.

San Diego City College, Department of Sociology

Jan 2022–May 2022

Student Researcher | Instructor: Marilyn Espitia, Ph.D.

San Diego, CA

“Research Brief: South Encanto”

- Conducted an urban ethnography of Census Tract 30.04 in Southeast San Diego, analyzing demographic data from multiple census tables (income, education, housing, transportation) to assess neighborhood needs and identify gaps in community resources and infrastructure.

- Designed and administered a questionnaire and conducted interviews with residents to explore community perceptions and social dynamics, uncovering a desire for stronger community ties and highlighting the lack of publicity for local rec center events aimed at fostering neighborhood connection.
